Today is my official 22nd birthday! But, I have something to say about this whole madness.

I truly am sorry for all the damages I did since May 2025. Especially targeting people such as Graham, Dom, Adrian P, and especially Riley and betraying my former friends, or throwing them under the bus. And the truth is, people are actually right about me. All these mistakes I have made were spiteful and disrespectful. The truth is, I am trying so hard to redeem myself and act like a better person, and not act like a manchild in comparison to what Matti is. I am so sorry for ragebaiting to the people I said on BitChute, and getting people to attract attention to me. And let me face it, it is my fault for doing all that. Especially when I acted towards people like Sean and Jorge on BitChute, when I should've kept my mouth shut. I should know that I can actually do it: Try to make myself look better unlike Matti. And the fact that I wanted call-outs and criticism against me deleted, they won't even know when they would call me out again. But, those didn't work because it proves that I cannot take any sort of criticism. And besides, what Sean Parnell said was true, not every call-outs on me will be deleted. And the apologies I tried making were insincere and unnecessary because that's basically me digging my grave down and doubling down my actions. But for now, I'll try to make a genuine apology. Knowing how Kenny, Matti, and Chucky are terrible people, I blocked all of them because of the actions they have done. As seen for the former, he literally drove Riley off the internet. All I can say is that Riley didn't do anything to me and is NOT a p3d0ph1l3 at all. Man, why would I do such a horrible thing to him by reversing his 1000 to spite him and ruining his music? The music I did was merging speeds like broken piano keys. Matti's version of Riley's 1000 with new music is no better. I'm glad I acknowledged that Kenny was a terrible person because of what he did to Riley.

The middle is all explained by this post, so read it here and credit goes to everyone who called Matti out for what he did to me:

I'm glad I acknowledged that Matti was a terrible person because of what he did to everyone. And there's no way he'll be sorry for the actions he has done if July 4th hits. And this is where I earned my respect for anyone who called Matti out for the deplorable things he has done. Since I learned that even if July 4th hits, I ain't forgiving Matti since I predict he's gonna repeat the same shit to me all over again.

And the latter… Well, you get the point. Still, he shouldn't be impersonating people and doxxing Graham and saying harmful threats towards them. I mean, why would he impersonate Mr. Lean by using his AI voice?! I was stunned and cringed when I heard that. I'm happy to know that Chucky's been an insufferable person ever since he told me not to delete my 1100 BTNL new soundtrack on BitChute, as seen in the description, because that feels unnecessary. What's the point of saying that if he milked 15 lists with song edits?

And now for the people that I will apologize to:

Riley, I'm truly sorry for what Kenny did to you. And I'm so sorry for being spiteful to you by reversing your 1000 BTNL and ruining your 1000 BTNL music to make it worse. I just know that you are a great guy, and one day you can contact me again. And I should think twice before bringing up your past opinions, creating a made-up community, and celebrating you leaving the internet. I acknowledged what I did was wrong and spiteful. And yes, I do know what Kenny did to you, because what Kenny did to you was unforgivable. I'll try to make sure to look for the better to see you again instead of believing Kenny's unnecessary rumors. I hope you're feeling okay.

Adrian P, I'm truly sorry for reversing your 1200 BTNL only because there are no emotions or names and your opinions (Though you hate Numberblocks to spite Bonkers but Brilliant). I thought your lists were okay, especially your 1500 BTNL. I came off with a very stupid reason to do so because you asked me when I will make my updated Papa Louie characters, when I have other things to do or when I am busy. I hope you're feeling alright.

Graham, I'm sorry for treating you badly back then. I know what I did was wrong and I took responsibility for reigniting dramas. It's a bad thing for me to bring up your past self as an 11-year-old because I copied Conor's opinions (And let's face it, I'm not sure if Conor might call me out). I don't even know why I brought my past self in Cinco De Mayo 2025 to be like Conor. And I'm really sorry about what Matti did to you about your opinion on Twilight Sparkle. I'll give you credit by calling Matti out. I should have thought twice before following my dreams or doing something really stupid.

Dom, I'm sorry for blaming you for reversing your 1100 BTNL, it's just your experience you have planned. I know now that it is incorrect to blame someone for an experience to be made. But, now I'm all grown up, I'm ready to take this responsibility and not listen to Matti. Knowing what I did was wrong, I said I was sorry and took accountability for my actions.

Sean Parnell, I'm sorry for reigniting the 2021 1000 BTNL drama, only because of me putting Amy (Cuties) on red. And yes, I did that on purpose until I realized Amy (Cuties) is a problematic character and deserves worse. Knowing that what I did was bad, I shouldn't be reigniting dramas ever since.

Conor Dooley, I'm truly sorry for copying your history. I know that copying your history is the wrong thing, ever since you regretted some stuff you did was wrong. I now noticed that was the wrong thing for me to do.

So, now that I think about it, I'm ready for my redemption! All of these things I know were all wrong and I should have thought twice before digging my grave. I'll try my best to stick with my content I'm currently making and not jump to conclusions. I'll promise to not do any more fucked up stuff from here and out. I'll see if I can change for the better since I deserve another chance. If you don't forgive me, then it's okay.
